

1) READ THE LETTER

My dear students,

I am so sorry to disturb you on Easter time ...

but there is a very big big problem!

Oscar Rabbit, the easter bunny broke his toe and he cannot HOP HOP HOP to give everyone Easter eggs.

Can you help?

Hope you have a hoppy Easter filled with joy and don't forget...

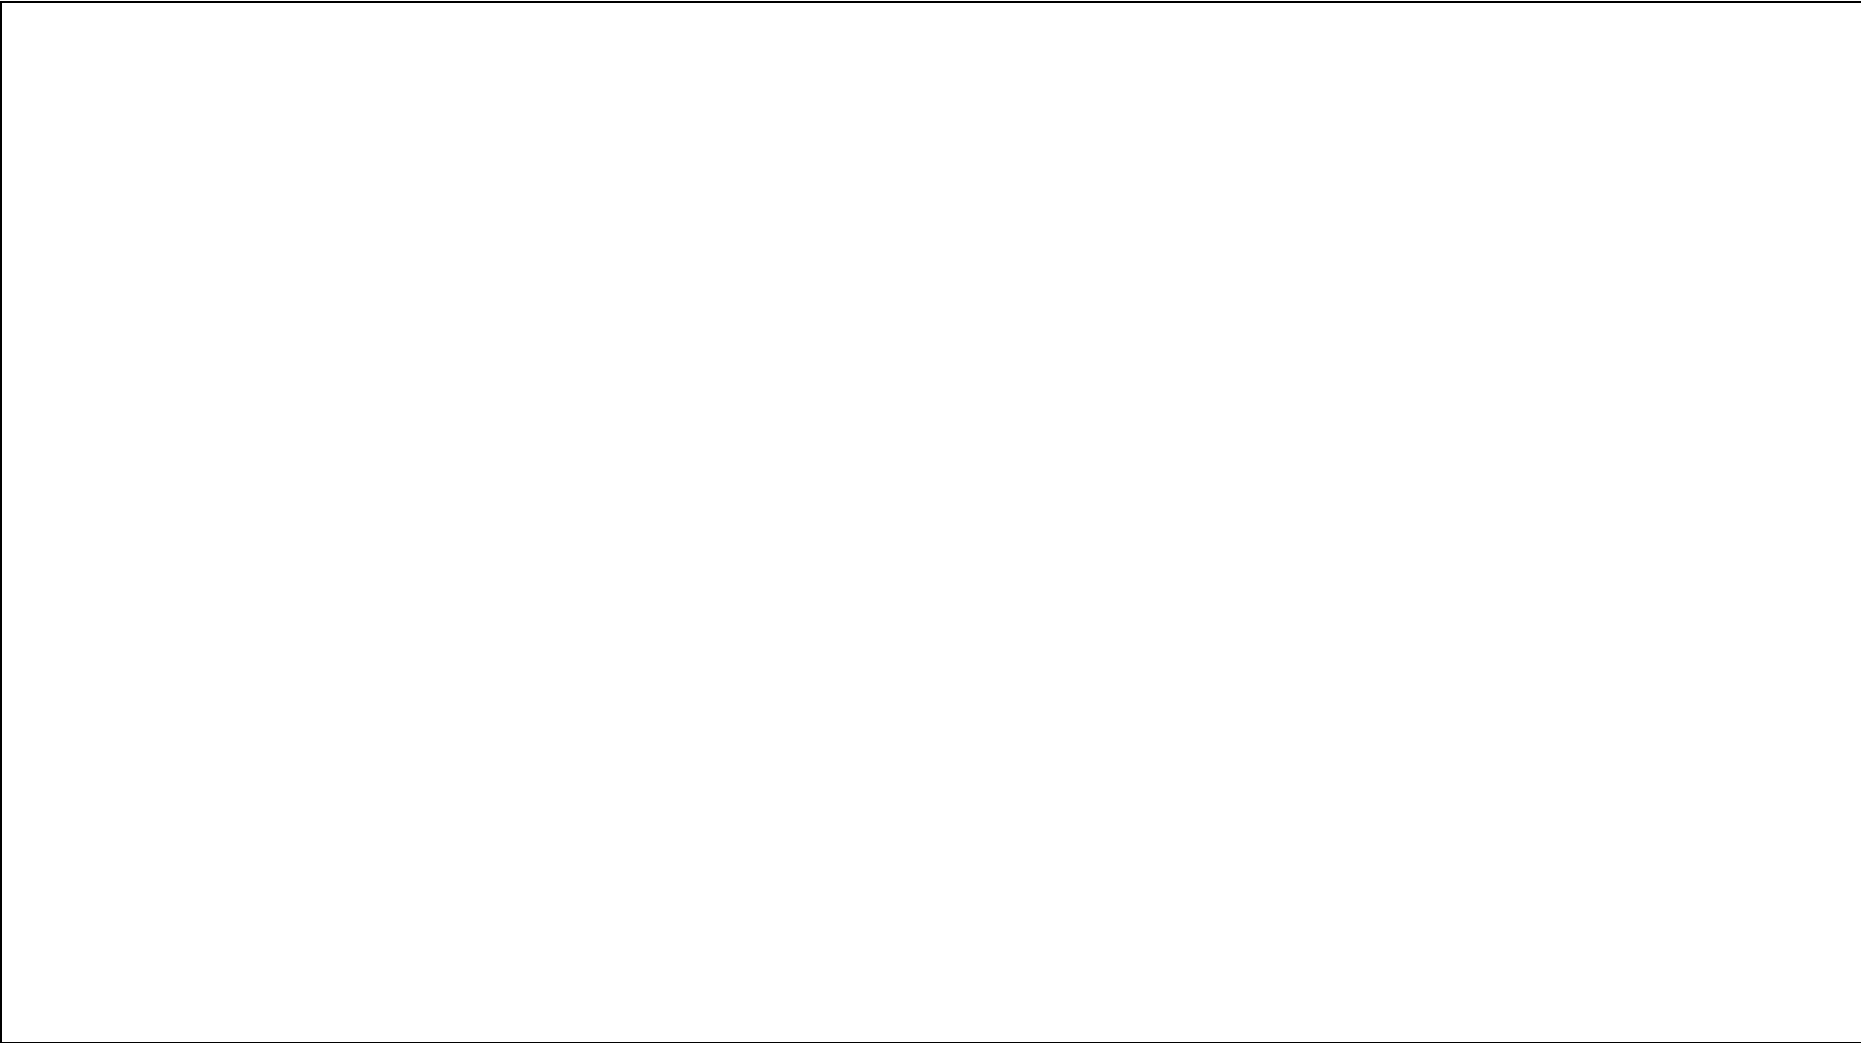

Somebunny loves you!

Warmest wishes

Your english teacher

Mrs.Marianna

2) Draw your own magic machine and all your beautiful easter eggs!

Petite Library welcomes you to Short Story Collection!

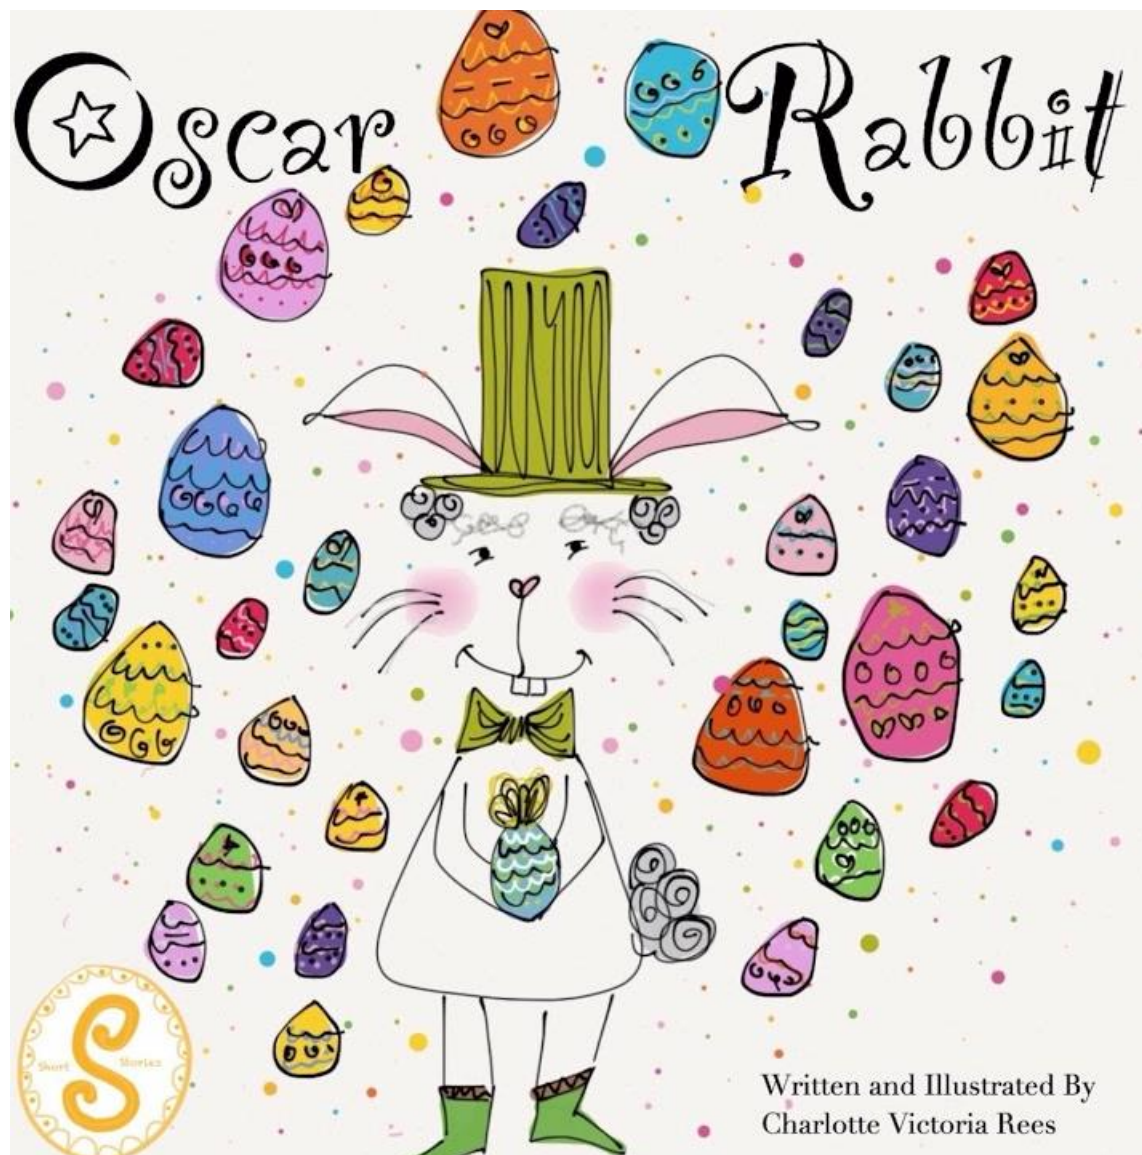

This magical Easter story is read by a very own Petite Library story teller, and is a wonderful tale about a rabbit, named Oscar.

On one very regular day something extraordinary happens and it all starts when the postman delivers a letter.

This sweet and light hearted story will capture your child's imagination; with it's incredibly detailed and vibrant illustrations which convey all the wonders of spring.
